GROWING BUSINESS IN KANSAS CITY

Nestled at the true crossroads of America, Kansas City epitomizes the perfect balance between the warm and gracious hospitality of the great Midwest and the sophisticated, cosmopolitan flair of a major urban center. For almost two centuries, Kansas City has welcomed cowboys and tycoons, as well as international travelers, frontier explorers, homesteaders and entrepreneurs, forging a tradition that lives on today.

EASY ACCESSIBILITY

Located on the upper banks of the Missouri River, Kansas City is easy to reach. The Kansas City International Airport (MCI) is just 19 miles away from North Kansas City with quick access from Highway 71. The city is also served by a nearby municipal airport, and is conveniently centered near Interstates 29 and 35 and the Broadway Freeway, with expedient access from points in every direction.

EXCEPTIONAL RECREATION

Part of Kansas City's unique charm is its appeal to a broad and diverse audience – there is literally something for everyone. During the day, history enthusiasts can explore railroad museums, civil war sites and landmarks dedicated to the history of westward expansion. Sports fans can enjoy professional football, baseball, soccer, and the NASCAR Speedway. Outdoor adventures along the fertile Missouri River are unrivaled, and the city boasts quaint neighborhoods filled with delightful boutique shops and art galleries.

At night, Kansas City comes alive with jazz joints and blues clubs that fill the air with scintillating riffs and rhythms. Fine restaurants and neighborhood hangouts serve up incredible culinary fare, from fine dining to down-home barbecue. And people join together across the city at bars and comedy clubs to laugh and have a good time.

EXPLORING KANSAS CITY

With more recreational treasures than you can count, Kansas City is filled with fun and excitement throughout the year with museums, zoos and more. Activities and attractions include:

- The Power and Light District
- World War I Museum
- Nelson-Atkins Museum of Arts
- Union Station
- American Jazz Museum
- 18th and Vine District
- Country Club Plaza
- Harry S. Truman Library and Museum
- Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art
- Worlds of Fun Amusement Park

YOUR SUCCESS IS OUR SUCCESS

MEETING FACILITIES

DESIGN AND TECHNOLOGY

With over 10,000 square feet of versatile meeting and special event space, Harrah's North Kansas City can accommodate receptions and gatherings as large as 900 and as intimate as a private business meeting for 10. Whether your program requires rooms for breakout sessions and exhibits, a large group seminar, an exquisite banquet – or all three – we have flexible space that can be arranged to meet your specific needs.

FORM AND FUNCTION

Conveniently located near the hotel entrance, the Convention Center is set apart from the casino, ensuring privacy as well as accessibility.

At 9,792 square feet, the NEVADA BALLROOM can be divided into as many as five rooms that can accommodate a variety of activities. The ballroom has the capacity for up to 550 guests for a banquet and up to 900 for a theater style presentation. Separated, the RENO, VEGAS and TAHOE rooms provide numerous options for breakout sessions, banquets or reception.

The NEVADA BALLROOM also offers a 2,500 square-foot PRE-FUNCTION AREA that can be used for event registration and pre-event receptions, as an exhibit hall or for networking breaks.

When you need a quiet place to work or a spot for a staff or board meeting, take advantage of the 728-square-foot LAUGHLIN ROOM or the exclusive 416-square-foot EXECUTIVE BOARDROOM, with capacities of 25 and 18 people, respectively.

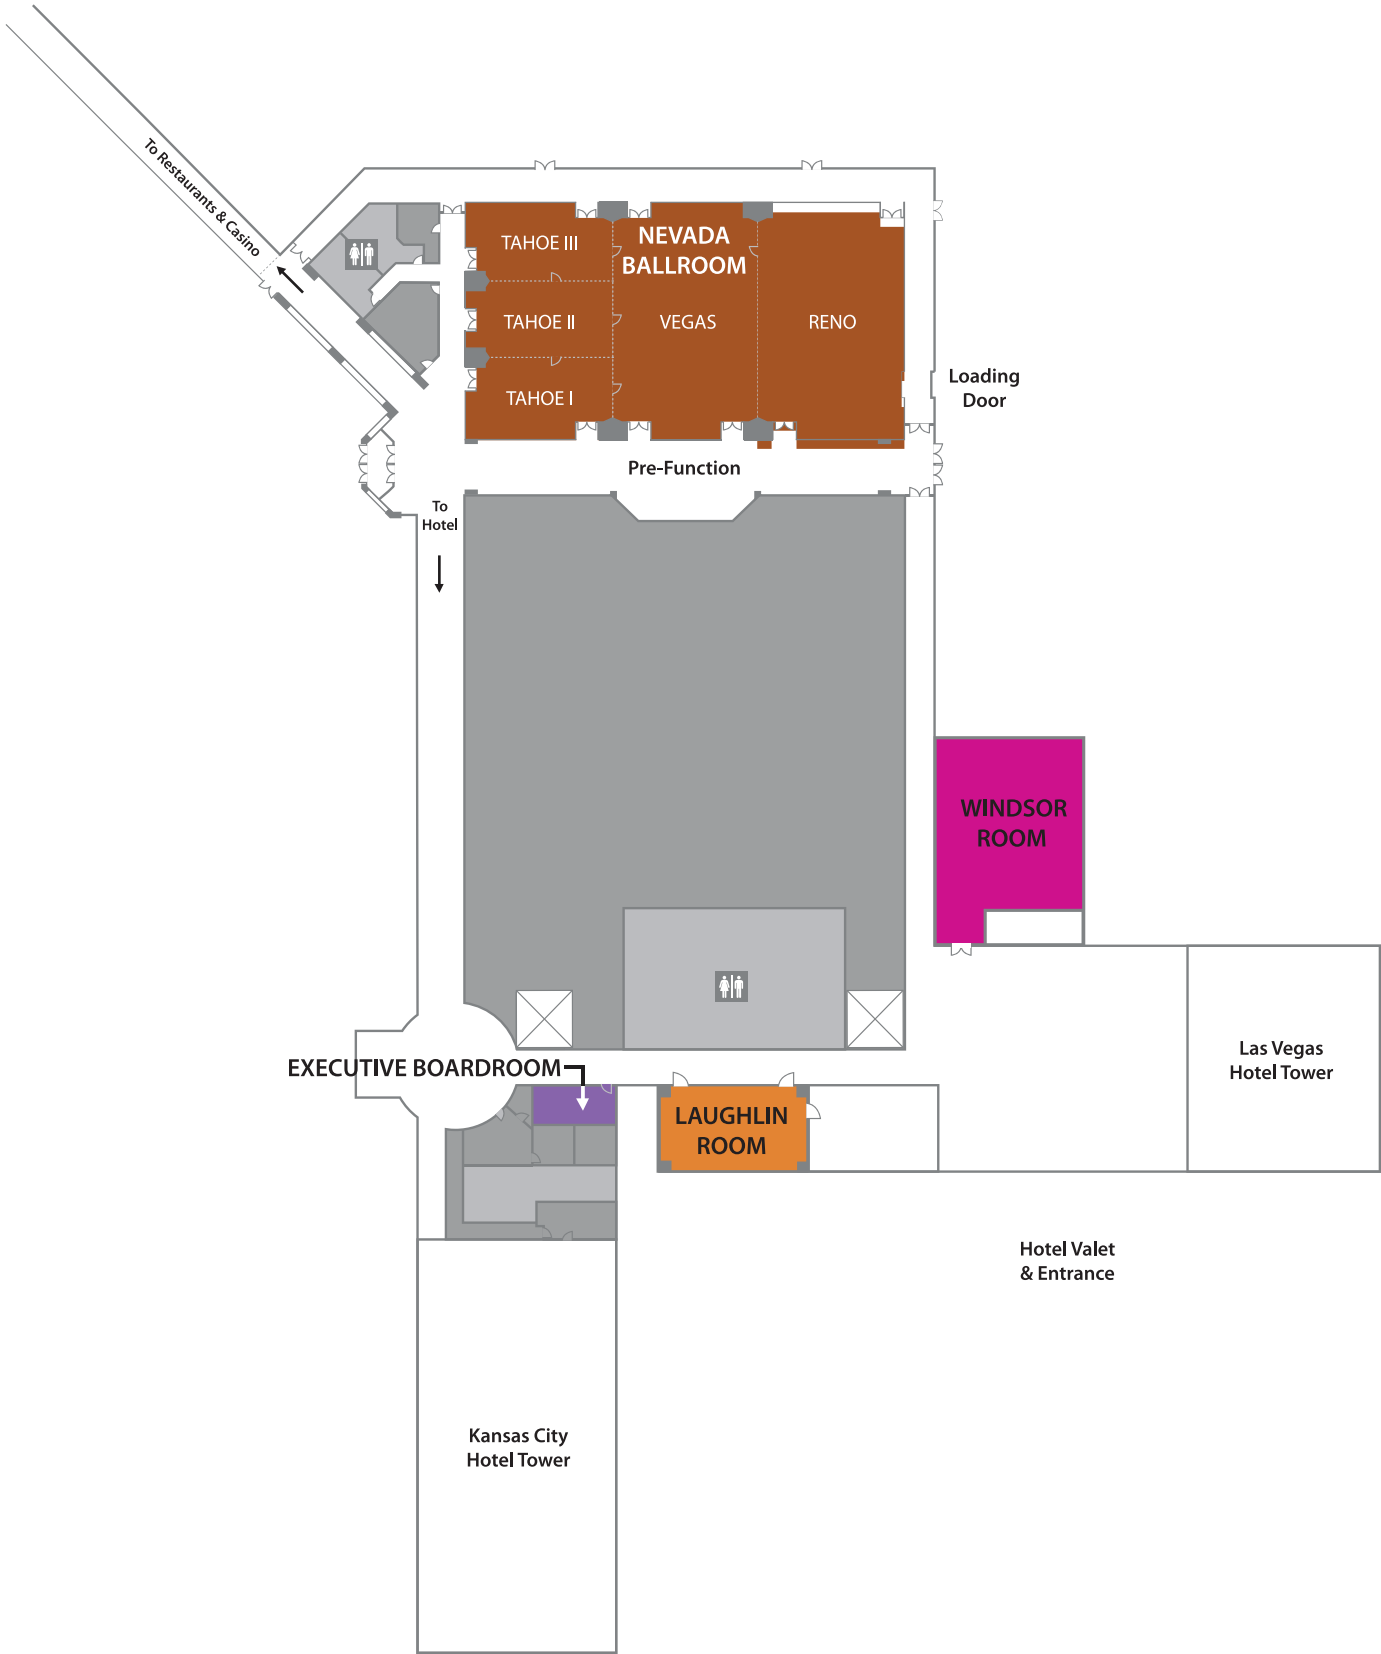

As an alternative setting for an extravagant party, a breathtaking awards ceremony, or an elaborate fundraiser, the VOODOO LOUNGE serves up excitement and energy in a dramatic theater setting with a state-of-the-art sound and lighting system.

“Our events at Harrah’s North Kansas City are successful because of the staff. They go above and beyond the call of duty.”
